

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND WOMEN WITH DISABILITIES: FORGOTTEN SISTERS

Stephanie Ortoleva, Esq., Founder and President of Women Enabled International is an accomplished international human rights lawyer, researcher, and consultant. Come learn about how her organization is part of a global network aimed at increasing access to justice for women and girls—especially those with disabilities—for a more inclusive society. She takes on such complex, interrelated issues as body image, violence against women, and international law.

WHEN: APRIL 30
5:00-6:00pm

WHERE: Pearn
Auditorium
(BRN 228)

Ever wondered about the relationship between women's rights, disability
rights, and human rights?

Learn more about how we can advocate for more inclusive
understandings of human rights!

SPONSORED BY THE WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM AT THE
UNIVERSITY OF SCRANTON

For more information about this event, or about Women's Studies, please contact
jamie.trnka@scranton.edu